2012 Vintage

92 Points - 2012 Estate Syrah, Eola-Amity Hills

"Sleek in structure, ripe in flavor, with pepper overtones to the pure dark berry and spice flavors, lingering easily on the expressive finish. Drink now through 2020."

92 Points - 2012 Estate Syrah, Eola-Amity Hills

"As quiet as a Cote Rotie in a cool vintage, this youthful wine is hinting at potential at the moment, giving off scents of smoke and white pepper, as meaty as a chilled slab of marbled beef. With air the wine becomes more floral and pretty, giving over to lavender and smoke. It will need a year in the cellar; then serve with smoked turkey."

89 Points - 2012 Estate Syrah, Eola-Amity Hills

"The 2012 Syrah, which comes grafted over Chardonnay vines and includes 10 to 15% whole cluster and none of the Viognier, has a refined, you might say, controlled bouquet with pure blackberry, raspberry, clove and violet scents that neatly intertwine. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly chewy tannin. There is good depth here, quite foursquare for a Syrah, with a strict and linear, blackberry and boysenberry finish. Give this one year in bottle and enjoy over 5-6 years."

- Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate

2014 Estate Syrah

Classic Syrah aromas of white pepper, spice, plums, leather, bacon fat and the slightest touch of tobacco leaf, along with a generous amount of dark black and blue fruits.
